

NEWS RELEASE

Frigate Bay, St. Kitts WI

May 11, 2006

www.caribbeanvacationsclub.com

The Caribbean Vacations Club was invited last May 4th 2006 on the occasion of the thirty third passing out parade of the Royal St. Christopher and Nevis Police Training School. During this event which took place from 5<sup>PM</sup> until 8<sup>PM</sup>, the new recruits were honoured for their outstanding qualifications. Their March Past in 'Slow' and 'Quick' Time salute was taken by His Excellency The Governor General The Hon. Prime Minister Dr. Denzil L. Douglas and The Hon. Minister of National Security, The Honorable Dwyer Astaphan. Training over the last 26 weeks has been conducted by Commandant Inspector Raymond Cotton and Class Instructors Sergeant Lionel Moore and Sergeant Terrance Mills.

Acknowledgements: The Commandant, Staff and Participants of Course Number 34, would like to take the opportunity to express sincere thanks and appreciation to all persons and organizations / constitutions who contributed in any way possible of making this Training Programme a success.

The Caribbean Vacations Club has made a contribution to the administrative department of the Royal St. Christopher and Nevis Police Training School.

These pictures are copies from the article that has been published in the 'Sun St. Kitts and Nevis' newspaper. Mr. Peter Apps (right) and Mr. Paul Hendriks (left) were seated behind His Excellency The Governor General The Hon. Prime Minister Dr. Denzil L. Douglas and The Hon. Minister of National Security, The Honorable Dwyer Astaphan.

